

The Friends

of the Osterhout Free Library

The Friends of the Osterhout Free Library was formed in 1972 to raise much needed funds. The annual book sale is the biggest Friends' fundraiser, held the third week of June under the tent on the patio. In 40 years, the Friends Book Sale has raised over $450,000.

Ongoing book sales at all four Osterhout Library locations bring in additional funds. In 2015, the Friends also opened a Book Shop within the main library, selling gently-used books all year long. All money raised goes directly to support the library's mission.

Funds raised by the Friends provide:

- Reading is Fundamental (RIF) books for children
 - Speakers, authors and forums
 - Staff education and development
- Chairs, desks, tables, bookcases and computers
 - Renovations and repairs
- Magazines, DVDs, CDs and audio books
 - And much, much more!
